

Unit 4

Listening script

[British teen boy and girl]

David Hey, Cathy, it was your birthday last week, wasn't it?

Cathy That's right, David.

David Did you get any nice presents?

Cathy Well, my parents bought me this camera. What do you think of it?

David Wow! It's brilliant.

Cathy Yes, it's much better than the camera on my phone. These are some of the photos I've taken. Look.

David These photos are great ... Hey, this one's fantastic. This is definitely my favourite. Who's in the photo?

Cathy It's my cousin Tim. While Tim was playing volleyball on the beach, he suddenly jumped up into the air to get the ball. That's when I took the photo.

David I'm impressed. You're really creative, Cathy. Where were you standing when you took the photo?

Cathy Actually, I wasn't standing. I was lying on the beach with my camera.

David Really?

Cathy Yes, I was lying about ten metres away. I was watching the game carefully, and waiting for the right moment to take a photo.

David Were you waiting for a long time?

Cathy I was waiting for about fifteen minutes.

David You're kidding!

Cathy No, it's true, David. If you want to take good photos, you need to be patient!
