

Unit 2

Listening script [1.03]

Lucy Hi, James. Do you want to do a quiz in this magazine? It's about senses.

James Yeah, sure.

Lucy OK, first question. Name the most disgusting or delicious thing you have ever tasted.

James Mmm ... I've eaten unusual food in different countries. But I think the worst thing I've ever tasted was the durian fruit, which I tried when I was in south-east Asia. It's a large tropical fruit that looks OK, but it smells awful. Some people actually love the smell, but I thought it smelled like bad fish!

Lucy Oh, that does sound disgusting! I don't think I'd like to eat that either. OK, next question. What's the most wonderful place that you have visited?

James Hmm ... well, I went to Paris last year and it was spectacular. The food is delicious and the sights are amazing. The Eiffel Tower is absolutely beautiful at night and the city has so much fashion, art and culture.

Lucy It sounds great! I'd love to go there one day. OK, here's the last question. Have you ever seen any wild animals up close?

James Oh yes, my favourite is the red panda. I saw it while I was visiting Whipsnade Zoo in the south of England. I found out that they normally live in the Himalayas and that they usually sleep in trees.

Lucy That sounds really interesting!
