

End of Term 1

Listening script [1.10]

- Emma Look what I've just found, Liam, a box of my dad's old computer games! Have you ever heard of Pac-Man?
- Liam Yes – you have to move the yellow hero around the maze, don't you?
- Emma Yes, that's it. It used to be really popular before games consoles like PlayStation 4. I remember when I was little, I used to play with Beanie Babies. Do you remember them?
- Liam Yes, I do, but I wasn't interested in them. I used to play with Pokémon. That was a huge craze when I was younger.
- Emma I don't know how anyone used to live without music online. I just love listening to music on my phone.
- Liam I've tried listening to my dad's music, but I got bored of trying to find the song I wanted. Imagine life with cassettes!
- Emma It's impossible! Or imagine life without smartphones. How did they use to keep up with the latest celebrity news? People can post ideas and plans online now and you can follow your friends. I love posting my latest photos.
- Liam Yes, me too. But I'm happy not to hear about celebrity news! I remember card-collecting was really popular at school. I used to collect football cards. I can't remember what I've done with them now.
- Emma Our parents' fashion was quite funny, too! Look at this photo! I was looking at some of my mum's old clothes a while ago – big, baggy jeans, patterned blouses, colourful tops ...!
- Liam And no hoodies or skinny jeans!
- Emma I wonder what our children will think of us! I suppose the things we do now will seem strange to them.
- Liam Like people walking round with selfie sticks! I mean ... what's that about? I think that's really funny.
