

First conditional with if and unless

1 Write sentences with similar meanings. Use the first conditional.

- 1 I hope you'll take some time out in July and we'll go abroad.
If _____
- 2 I need to practise driving a lot to get a driving licence.
Unless _____
- 3 I might save enough money to start my own business.
If _____
- 4 I know that you'll be tired tomorrow because you want to stay up late today.
If _____
- 5 I hope you'll bring some video games so we can have fun on Saturday.
If _____
- 6 You need to buy new hiking boots. Then we'll hike across Wales.
Unless _____

2 Complete the sentences with your own ideas.

- 1 Unless you lend me the money, _____.
- 2 If Lucas wastes time, _____.
- 3 What will you do if _____?
- 4 Unless you start looking after yourself, _____.
- 5 They won't get to school on time unless _____.
- 6 I'll get a new phone if _____.

might vs. will

3 Complete Millie's email using will or might with the verbs in the box.

allow be continue help increase not earn start work

Hi Harrison

How are you? Guess what? I'm not sure, but I ¹_____ my first job soon. It isn't a hundred per cent confirmed, but I think I ²_____ in a clothes shop! I've already been to the job interview and it went quite well.

My friend, Anna, works at the same shop and she says that if I get the job, my task ³_____ to hang dresses, tops and other clothes. I'm sure that I

⁴_____ customers find the right colours and sizes of the clothes they like as well. And here's the best news! Anna says that the shop ⁵_____ me to buy some clothes for myself at a lower price. They don't offer that to everyone, only to those people who work hard. I hope I'll be one of them!

Of course, I ⁶_____ a lot of money at the beginning, but I guess my earnings ⁷_____ after some time. It's only a summer job, although I ⁸_____ working for them at the weekends in the school year. I guess it's too early to plan that now.

Keep your fingers crossed for me,

Millie

will and be going to

4 Complete the sentences using the be going to or will form of the verbs in brackets.

- 1 'Why are you looking for your phone?'
'I _____ (call) my friend.'
- 2 Don't worry. You _____ (meet) new friends soon.
- 3 I _____ (change) the colour of the walls in my room. I've decided to paint them yellow.
- 4 I'm sure you _____ (not have) any problems with this test.
- 5 I think my sister _____ (get) rich before she's thirty years old.
- 6 Toby _____ (not get) a social media account. He says it's a waste of time.

Future continuous

5 Complete the sentences about you, your friends and your family using the future continuous.

- 1 This time next week, my mum _____.
- 2 At 5.00 p.m. on Monday, I _____.
- 3 This time tomorrow, my best friend _____.
- 4 On Sunday afternoon, my family and I _____.
- 5 Tomorrow at 7.00 p.m. I _____.
- 6 Tonight at 4.00 p.m. my friends and I _____.
- 7 At 10.00 a.m. next Wednesday, my dad _____.