

USA and Canada

Read what the people are saying. Where are they?

I'm sorry. I don't understand.
Do you speak English?

Who are those presidents?
Do you know?

I loved that book. I can't believe I'm here.

Let's go shopping. This is the place for it!

Is that the Colorado River
over there?

Let's go to the Canal. We haven't been there yet.

Wow, I can listen to this music all day.

Be careful! That bear looks dangerous.

Is that Canada over there?

It's beautiful here, but the water is too cold to swim.

Imagine you are in one of these places. What would you say? Write it here.

Tell your friends in class. Can they guess where you are?
