

EGGSTRA EGGCITING QUIZ

I can say some facts about Easter traditions.

1 How much do you know about Easter? Follow the steps below and find out!

STEP 1

Get into small groups. Choose a person who will check if your answers are correct or not.

STEP 2

Everybody throws a die once. The student with the highest number starts the game.

STEP
3

Play the game. May the cleverest and luckiest person win the game!

START

1

Easter is

- a) on the same date every year.
- b) on a different date every year.
- c) always in April.

2

The week before Easter is called

- a) Great Week.
- b) Big Week.
- c) Holy Week.

Skip one turn.

Go to the garden and get some grass for the Easter basket.

Roll again.

4

The last day of Easter celebrations is

- a) Easter Monday.
- b) Easter Tuesday.
- c) Easter Wednesday.

Skip one turn.

Wait for the chickens to lay some eggs.

3

It is believed that the Easter Bunny probably comes from

- a) Germany.
- b) Italy.
- c) the USA.

5

The game where children search for hidden eggs is called

- a) Easter treasure hunt.
- b) Easter egg hunt.
- c) Easter egg search

6

An egg is a symbol of

- a) new life.
- b) hope.
- c) peace.

Go back three spaces.

You forgot to tell the Easter Bunny what to get you for Easter!

7

A sweet bun traditionally eaten in the United Kingdom during Easter is called

- a) a hot cross bun.
- b) a hot egg bun.
- c) a bunny bun.

8

Which flower is associated with Easter?

- a) Rose.
- b) Tulip.
- c) Lily.

Your ham looks delicious.
Well done!

Go forward two places.

12

Decorated eggs for the Russian royal family are called

- a) Fabergé eggs.
- b) Jewel eggs.
- c) Murano eggs.

Oh, no! Your eggs are undercooked.

Go back to the start!

13

What does the Easter basket represent?

- a) A green garden.
- b) A bird's nest.
- c) A flower pot.

11

What meat do people in the USA and Croatia usually eat on Easter Sunday?

- a) Steak.
- b) Chicken wings.
- c) Ham.

15

What colour will you get if you dye eggs using a red cabbage?

- a) Red.
- b) Green.
- c) Blue.

14

The fight to see which egg cracks and which 'survives' is called

- a) egg tapping.
- b) egg hitting.
- c) egg cracking.

Oh, dear! You didn't buy the ham.

Skip two rounds
and go to the shop.

Skip two turns.

Dye the eggs while you are waiting.

Skip two rounds.

Set the table while you are waiting.
Everybody is hungry!

FINISH

10

What do Australians have instead of the Easter Bunny?

- a) Easter Kangaroo.
- b) Easter Bilby.
- c) Easter Quokka.

2

Label the photos with the words from the quiz.

1

2

3

9

What do many children in Scotland do with their decorated Easter eggs?

- a) They roll them down a hill.
- b) They hide them in the house.
- c) They eat them.

4

5