

81 HOMONYMS

1 a) What is the meaning of the word mint? Match the sentences to the explanations.

- |  |  |
|--|--|
| 1 I decorated the fruit salad with a touch of mint .                          | <input type="checkbox"/> a place where coins and banknotes are made  |
| 2 In 1965, the mint stopped producing silver coins.                           | <input type="checkbox"/> unused or in perfect condition  |
| 3 If his books sell worldwide, he'll make a mint .                            | <input type="checkbox"/> a plant whose leaves have a fresh smell and taste. It is added to food and drinks and used in cooking as an herb. |
| 4 Some people eat mints in order to make their breath smell fresher.          | <input type="checkbox"/> a large amount of money   |
| 5 I bought a two-year-old car, in mint condition, with fewer than 20, 000 km. | <input type="checkbox"/> a sweet with a mint flavour   |

b) What is the meaning of the word trace? Match the sentences to the explanations.

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| 1 Did you draw this picture yourself, or did you trace it? | <input type="checkbox"/> a piece of evidence left behind |
| 2 The phone company was unable to trace the call.          | <input type="checkbox"/> to find the origin of something |
| 3 There is just a trace of grey in his hair.               | <input type="checkbox"/> a very slight amount            |
| 4 Scientists have found traces of life on Mars.            | <input type="checkbox"/> to copy a drawing or pattern    |

1 a) What is the meaning of the word mint? Match the sentences to the explanations.

- |  |  |
|--|--|
| 1 I decorated the fruit salad with a touch of mint .                          | <input type="checkbox"/> a place where coins and banknotes are made  |
| 2 In 1965, the mint stopped producing silver coins.                           | <input type="checkbox"/> unused or in perfect condition  |
| 3 If his books sell worldwide, he'll make a mint .                            | <input type="checkbox"/> a plant whose leaves have a fresh smell and taste. It is added to food and drinks and used in cooking as an herb. |
| 4 Some people eat mints in order to make their breath smell fresher.          | <input type="checkbox"/> a large amount of money   |
| 5 I bought a two-year-old car, in mint condition, with fewer than 20, 000 km. | <input type="checkbox"/> a sweet with a mint flavour   |

b) What is the meaning of the word trace? Match the sentences to the explanations.

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| 1 Did you draw this picture yourself, or did you trace it? | <input type="checkbox"/> a piece of evidence left behind |
| 2 The phone company was unable to trace the call.          | <input type="checkbox"/> to find the origin of something |
| 3 There is just a trace of grey in his hair.               | <input type="checkbox"/> a very slight amount            |
| 4 Scientists have found traces of life on Mars.            | <input type="checkbox"/> to copy a drawing or pattern    |